

ISCEV Clinical Electrophysiology Course

date

Monday 22nd & Tuesday 23rd August 2005, preceding the main ISCEV symposium

venue

Glasgow, UK.

content

Recording techniques and underlying physiology of full-field, pattern and multi-focal ERG and VEP. Clinical applications using case studies as illustration. Demonstrations opportunity to practice techniques using commercially-available equipment.

lecturers

The ISCEV faculty: Dr Graham Holder, Professor Ulrich Kellner, Dr Don Hood Professor Michael Bach, Mr Chris Hogg.

details

www.gcal.ac.uk/conferences/iscev2005 electrophysiology

cost

£180, reduced to £160 prior to 6th June 2005. Includes teaching, demonstrations, lunch and dinner on Monday 22nd August, teas and coffees on both days and attendance at the Keynote Lecture of the concurrent BriSCEV Symposium. A discount of around 10% is offered to those registering for both the course and for the main Symposium.